SPRINGFIELD CITY POLICE, et al.,

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS, ORDER TO CLERK

This action is before the Court for review prior to issuance of process. Plaintiff was granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. §1915. 28 U.S.C. §1915(e)(2), as amended by the Prison Litigation Reform Act of 1995 Title VIII of P.L. 104-134, 110 Stat. 1321(effective April 26, 1996)(the "PLRA"), reads as follows:

Notwithstanding any filing fee, or any portion thereof, that may have been paid, the court shall dismiss the case at any time if the court determines that

- (A) the allegation of poverty is untrue; or
- (B) the action or appeal --
 - (I) is frivolous or malicious;
 - (ii) fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted; or
 - (iii) seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief.

A complaint is frivolous under this statute if it lacks an arguable basis either in law or in fact. Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25, 112 S. Ct. 1728, 118 L. Ed. 2d 340 (1992); Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 325, 109 S. Ct. 1827, 104 L. Ed. 2d 338 (1989). In deciding whether a complaint is "frivolous," that is, the Court does not consider whether a plaintiff has good intentions or sincerely believes that he or she has suffered a legal wrong. Rather the test is an objective one: does the complaint have an arguable basis in law or fact?

It is appropriate for a court to consider this question sua sponte prior to issuance of process "so as to spare prospective defendants the inconvenience and expense of answering such complaints." Neitzke, 490 U.S. at 324; McGore v. Wigglesworth, 114 F.3d 601 (6th Cir. 1997); Franklin v. Murphy, 745 F.2d 1221, 1226 (9th Cir. 1984). The Court "is not bound, as it usually is when making a determination based solely on the pleadings, to accept without question the truth of the plaintiff's allegations." Denton, 504 U.S. 25, 112 S. Ct. 1728, 118 L. Ed. 2d at 349. Dismissal is permitted under §1915(e) only "if it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts which would entitle him to relief." Spruytte v. Walters, 753 F.2d 498 (6th Cir. 1985), disagreed with by Walker v. Mintzes, 771 F.2d 920 (6th Cir. 1985); Brooks v. Seiter, 779 F.2d 1177 (6th Cir. 1985).

Plaintiff brought this action pro se and in forma pauperis against numerous Defendants, all of whom he has denominated as U.S. Government officials. While the Complaint is difficult to read, it appears to allege that the Defendants have harassed Plaintiff over a minor record, presumably a criminal record, which he claims he is entitled to have expunged. Instead of expunging it, he appears to allege that the Defendants have publicized it and relied on it.

The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. If indeed Plaintiff has been convicted of a criminal offense and that conviction has not been expunged, then it is a matter of public record and anyone who knows of it has the right to speak about it. Under certain circumstances, the Ohio courts, can expunge a criminal record of conviction, but this Court does not have the authority to do so. Whether the Defendants are United States government officials or state officials, there is no liability which attaches to them for publicizing truthfully a person's criminal conviction.

Accordingly, it is respectfully recommended that the Complaint herein be dismissed without prejudice for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted in federal court. The Clerk is ordered not to issue process pending further order of the Court.

April 30, 2007.
